Ft. Scott Burglars Jump Through a Plate Glass Window.

Close of the Y. W. C. A. Meeting at Ottawa.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

Oil in Good Quantities Struck at Caney.

Pr. Scott, Oct. 22.—One of the most daring burglaries ever committed in this city was attempted Saturday night. Officer Graham approached the rear of Greenfield's store on his customary rounds and found the back door wide open.

He saw a man inside, and as it was not late, thought it was one of the Greenfield boys.

He soon discovered his mistake, as when he spoke, the man tried to hide. Graham once opened fire, when the thief and his confederates broke for the front of the store and plunged headlong through the heavy plate glass of the main entrance.

As they went through they were heard to cry out as though cut by the glass or struck by one of the shots fired by the officer. The loud crash startled every one in the neighborhood.

The men were immediately pursued by Officer Waters and others, but they were unable to overtake them.

The thieves seemed to be well acquainted with the place, as in the short time they were in the store they selected a suit of clothing, leaving their old garments on the floor.

They then proceeded to gather up a large assortment of the very best quality of goods in the store, including fine hats, shoes and underwear, and the most expensive overcoats. The money drawer was also visited and about $5 in silver change taken.

R. N. G. ENCAMPMENT.

It Will Be Held at Ottawa, to Lawrence's Great Displeasure.

LAWRENCE, Oct. 22.—Lawrence has lost the annual encampment of the First brigade Kansas National Guards, and it will be held at Ottawa, next week. Many people here are disappointed, because they think if the city administration had been alive to its opportunities the encampment could have been secured for this place.

The gathering is to be the largest brigade encampment ever held in the state of Kansas and the first one held in the past eight years. Over 500 men will be assembled for five days at Forest Park, Ottawa, and this means a distinctly material advantage to that city. The state will expend nearly $1,000 in provisions for the men, and all that the city is asked to guarantee is $100, besides wood, drayage, feed for the cavalry horses and a few incidentals, making the cost less than $200. A big street parade and sham battle will call immense crowds to the city on the last day.

Y. W. C. A. AT OTTAWA.

The Meeting at Ottawa Closed Last Night.

OTTAWA, Oct. 22.—At the Saturday session of the Young Women's Christian association, the devotional service in the afternoon was conducted by Miss Laura Hand of Baker university. Miss Anna Bank, in the absence of Miss Mary Snow of the state university, related the details of "How We Met the New Girls at the State University." Mr. G. R. Stephens, introduced Col. Blue to his hearers (and many who couldn't hear), and that gentleman at once proceeded to deliver one of the ablest, most logical and comprehensive speeches ever delivered in Yates Center. The evening meeting was held in the tent, which was crowded to its utmost capacity, and could not accommodate much more than half of the crowd.

It was a pretty busy day for us, our job being kept in almost constant motion until the time for the speaking, printing "Dick Blue and Curtis too" badges, and even then the supply was not equal to the demand.

IRRIGATION HELPS

To Sell Lands Belonging to the Santa Fe Railroad.

John E. Frost land commissioner of the Santa Fe is busy.

"The inquiry for lands is improving," said he to a Journal reporter. "I find that the more we encourage irrigation is doing much to encourage immigration and will lead to better results in the future."

"We have made some sales of Kansas lands recently, but I don't look for an extended movement this fall, but next spring a more active business is expected."

"The harvest excursions have brought a great number of land hunters from Illinois, Iowa and Missouri. There were two excursions, one in September and the other in October."

JOINS THE DREIBUND.

It Is Asserted that Roumania Has Joined the Triple Alliance.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The Figaro makes the somewhat remarkable assertion that Roumania has joined the triple alliance, composed of Austria, Germany and Italy, and declares that the visit of the king of Servia to Vienna and Berlin was in contemplation of a still further change in the dreibund.

DE WOLF HOPPER HURT.

While Personating a Drunken Man, He Falls Upon the Stage.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Columbia College students' night at the Broadway Theater was a sad one.

While staggering across the stage, impersonating a drunken person, DeWolf Hopper fell, injuring his left arm and sustaining severe internal injuries.

ARSENICAL POISON.

A Vienna Paper Says That is the Czar's Trouble.

He is Resting Better but There is No Hope.

WHO SHALL SUCCEED?

Tenuous Rumors That the Czar-ewitch Declines to Do So.

The Czarina Has Had an Attack of Hysteria.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—Advices from Livadia regarding the health of the czar intimate that the slight rally reported yesterday was purely temporary.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 22.—Private advices received here from Livadia today say that the czar has passed a good night and that he is somewhat stronger today.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Daily News has this from its Vienna correspondent: "A cipher telegram received here from Russia yesterday declared that it was impossible to send news except by letter across the frontier. A Vienna daily asserts that the czar's illness is the consequence of arsenical poisoning."

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News has received the report that the czar-ewitch has renounced the succession.

"It is none the less true," it is added, "that the czar's brothers, who now have been summoned to Livadia, came to France so as to be out of the way during any possible crisis about the order in which the throne should be transmitted."

From St. Petersburg, the News hears: "The latest advices from Livadia are that, despite the fact that he is out of bed, the czar's case is hopeless. The doctors have discovered that he has a cancer. In the last ten days he has lost thirty-two pounds. The excitement here and in Moscow is indescribable."

ORIGIN OF THE CZAR'S DISEASE.

It Is Believed He Got It in a Railroad Accident in 1888.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—A dispatch from Warsaw says it is believed in the city that the disease from which the czar is suffering originated in the railroad accident near Burko in October, 1888, when the imperial train was wrecked while his majesty was returning from the Crimea to St. Petersburg. Killing twenty-one people and wounding thirty-six others, among whom was the czarina.

The czar suffered from contusions on both sides of the body, and this, it is conjectured, may have caused some internal injury, as he has never been quite well since. It was reported at the time of this accident that it was due to defective rails, but the popular belief is that the wreck was caused by nihilists.

The car in which the czar and the imperial family were traveling at the time was constructed of steel, and to this fact was due the escape from death of Alexander and his traveling companions.

WANT GRAND DUKE MICHAEL.

A Ukase Asked Proclaiming Him to Be the Heir.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—If the czar's death should not be hastened by heart failure owing to recurring spasms, or by apoplexy, both incidental to his malady, the doctor kept in almost constant motion until the time for the speaking, printing "Dick Blue and Curtis too" badges, and even then the supply was not equal to the demand.

The Berliner Tageblatt professed to have the best authority for this statement: "Despite all the czar-ewitch refuses to succeed to the throne. Therefore an imperial ukase proclaiming his youngest brother, the Grand Duke Michael, to be the heir, is asked. It is reported that the czarina did not learn until Friday how grave her husband's condition was."

The numerous imperial princes now at Livadia have been gathered for state as well as family reasons. They will form an inter-county, whose composition will be announced soon after the convening of the senate on October 23.

Czarina's Legs Paralyzed.

WARSAW, Oct. 22.—Dispatches from Warsaw say that it is believed from nervous collapse and paralysis of the legs. Her illness was caused by overwork in the sick room, loss of sleep and constant anxiety. The Grand Duchess Xenia has been confined to her bed for several days. She is said to be suffering from premature child-birth.

Czarina Had Hysteria.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Globe this afternoon publishes a dispatch from Paris, saying that the czarina had a bad attack of hysteria yesterday. The dispatch adds that her majesty never leaves the sick room of the czar, and that she can hardly be induced to take any repose. It is feared that the czarina will lose her reason if the anxiety is protracted for any considerable time.

A HANDCUFFED SKELETON.

Rusty Manacles on the Wrists of a Disemboweled Skeleton Found Near Guthrie.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Oct. 22.—Deputy Sheriff P. K. Albert has returned from the Guthrie country bringing a gruesome relic. While traveling along the bank of the Canadian river, near Thurber, he found a pair of rusty handcuffs clasp the arms of a skeleton partly torn to pieces by wild animals. It was all that remained of some prisoner who had undoubtedly escaped from his guards some time in the past and perished.

COL. COLT COMMENDED.

Ex-Gov. Hoadley Says He Did Nobly at Washington Court House.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22.—Ex-Governor Hoadley of Ohio, writes from New York as follows:

Col. Colt, Fourteenth Infantry:
MY DEAR COLONEL:—It goes without saying, or ought to at least, that I, who once commanded the national guard of Ohio, have not lost my interest in that noble body of citizen soldiers.

That interest prompts me to write you today and congratulate you and the men under your command on your and their magnificent behavior at Washington Court House. The regiment has for many years been the right arm for the executive department of Ohio. If their regiment could have reached Cincinnati two hours earlier it could have saved the beautiful court house of Hamilton from the destruction by flames which overwhelmed it, and under your command it has saved Fayette county from the horrible disgrace of mob rule overcoming law and order by brute force.

I congratulate Gov. McKinley and you and the men under your command on the outcome of the work at Washington Court House. Of course, it was a great pity that life was taken and perhaps it may prove, as is often the case under such circumstances that the wrong man was killed, but mobs cannot be suppressed without hurting somebody.

People who happen to be present in a mob take upon themselves the risk of their position, and this cannot be avoided, but there is but one way to suppress a mob. Napoleon Bonaparte taught this long ago, and you executed the painful duty, it seems to me, from what I have read, with the maximum of courage and the minimum of harm.

With kind regards, Yours truly,

GEORGE HOADLEY.

NOT IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

Nobody Wants to Hang a Nude Picture There.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—President Cleveland will return to the White House next week. He will then have a question presented to him that will be more interesting to his mind than the support of Senator Hill of New York.

An aggressively nude picture, entitled "Love and Life," was presented to the United States government by F. R. Watts, a member of the Royal Academy of London. This picture was on exhibition at the Chicago fair in the British section. Secretary Gresham, in officially notifying Mr. Watts of the acceptance of his picture by congress, promised the artist it would be hung in the east room at the White House.

When the picture was received in President Cleveland's cabinet, no one at the White House would assume the responsibility of hanging it. The figures are those of a man and woman, the former typifying life and the latter love.

If the president concludes to place the picture along side those of Abraham Lincoln, George Washington and Thomas Jefferson, there will be strong objections from those who do not believe in the public exposure of the nude in art or in associating such a pronounced type of the undraped with historical characters. On the other hand, Mr. Cleveland will invite criticism from the polite and artistically educated. He refused to carry out Secretary Gresham's promise and the acceptance of congress. The president's decision will be awaited with much interest.

WOUNDED JAPS.

There Are 1,800 at Chemulpo and 3,100 Have Been Sent to Japan.

CHEMULPO, Oct. 22.—A detachment of 1,800 wounded Japanese has arrived here and there is a large number of wounded at Seoul. In addition 2,100 wounded Japanese have been sent to Japan. At Ping Yang there are 3,200 wounded Chinese in the hospital.

The rebellious Tonghaks of southern Korea are restless, and only the fact that they are not provided with arms prevents them from breaking out into open revolt and moving upon Seoul, for which, by the way, many of them have started.

A Catholic Majority in Belgium.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 22.—According to unofficial figures published here the recent elections for members of the chamber of representatives have resulted in the following distribution: Catholics, 104; Liberals, 19; Socialists and Radicals, 29. It is reported that M. De Burlet, the premier, has been defeated for re-election to the chamber by a small majority.

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In honor it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 3d N. Y. Cavalry and of the 10th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the best remedy for all the troubles mentioned, and come up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."

"These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by two Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, 25c per bottle, six bottles $5.00, express prepaid. They positively contain neither opiates nor dangerous drugs."
